SCORCH THE BOOKMAKERS.

FIRST AND SECOND CHOICES MAKE IT ROUGH FOR THE LAYERS.

St. Valentine Beats Alencon-Capucine Wins the Juvenile Race-Lucky at the Start -Lady Ellison Is Best.

New Orleans, La., January 10 .- The bookmakers at City Park this afternoon received a trouncing that they will long remember. It was their worst day this winter. Favorites and second choices, all well backed took the entire card. The race intended to be the fifth at a mile and an eighth, was declared off and a race under selling conditions at six furlongs substituted. The presence of Orbicular in the original race scared the others out.

In the handicap St. Valentine, under a masterful ride, took the fourth race in fast time from Alen-John L. Inglis, on which his owner attempted a big betting coup, failed to run up to expectations and could do no better than third.

The change of riders from Larsen to Mountain enabled Miss Leeds to spreadeagle her opponents in the substituted race. Florizel and Reticent had a hard struggle for second place, which went to the Van Dusen kept out of pockets today and brought the liberally supported Rusk home an easy winner over Goldproof in the sixth race. Industrious circulation of a story to the effect that Tom Dolan was lame enabled his connections to obtain a fancy figure against him in the opening race. no chances and rushed him into a long lead from the start making every post a winning one.

C. R. Ellison again won a good sized wager by the victory of Lady Ellison, which was much the best

In the race for maiden two-year-old fillies Capulcine, after acting fractiously at the post and delaying the start for a long time, secured a big ing the start for a long time, secured a big advantage which stood her so well in hand that she just lasted long enough to take the purse from which was making her debut and is owned by A. H. & D. H. Morris. The poor send-off was responsible for the poor showing of many of the starters.

Quinn Brady roughed his way into the lead in the closing race and in the final drive barely lasted long enough to get home in front of the suddenly awakened and poorly ridden Beecher.

Messrs. Dade and Cassidy are trying to reach at agreement whereby Dade will do all the starting at Oaklawn and Cassidy will do the work in New Orleans at both tracks.

BRIGHTON BEACH STAKE ENTRIES.

As the entries to the big handicaps presaged would be the case, nominations to the other events offered by three leading New York organizations, which closed at the same time, are considerably in excess of those of last year. Belated entries are still expected, so the final and accurate figures have not as yet been made public. Already the Brighton Beach Racing Association report a total of 1,250 nominations to stakes to be run off this year as against 1,213 to the same events last year. So far the Produce Stakes of 1909 has received the nominations of 903 mares, greatly exceeding the 694 awarded the same stake for 190 Cup has seventy-three entries against forty-seven last year and the Cup Preliminary sixty-one against one. Late arrivals have swelled the Brighton Handicap entries to seventy-eight, six more that it had last year. In fact, nearly all the races for three-year-olds or over show a decided gain over last while the two-year-old stakes have fallen off slightly. Up to Tuesday evening the Brighton stakes offered the following totals, as compared with 1906:

MEETING OF A. T. A. DIRECTORS.

New Orleans, La., January 10.—At the meeting of the directors of the American Turf Association held here this morning, only routine matters, the hearing of applications for reinstatement, etc., were under consideration. Sam Most, ruled off at City Fark last winter for having, it is alleged, offered a bribe to jockey Smith, sought reinstatement and his case was referred back to the officials of the City Park track. Jockey Porter, suspended at Latonia for a faulty ride on Maverick, asked to be restored and his application was deferred. The applications of Jockey James Gormley and jockey E. Miller were denied. The license committee will wade through a batch of applications tonight and the date question will be discussed.

Judge Trevelyan in discussing the American Turf ciation's action in referring the case of Sam Most back to the City Park officials, stated that he would recommend the reinstatement of Most, believing that the one-time plunger has been sufficiently

SUN SHINES AGAIN AT LOS ANGELES.

Track Still Heavy and Holding and the Racing Poor-Zethus a Good One.

Los Angeles, Cal., January 10.—For the first time in almost a week the sun was shining today and a large crowd was at Ascot Park. The track was holding and heavy, giving mud runners the call in the betting. A card of very mediocre quality was offered, Secretary Boden being put to his wits' end to fill several of the races because of bad track conditions.

The most pretentious race of the day was the fourth, a free handicap at one mile. Lord of the Heath was made a mild favorite, but ran a poor race showing little speed throughout and finishing a bad Entre Nous attempted to make a runaway race but was overlauled when entering the stretch by Merlingo, the latter ranging alongside of her in the final eighth, and under a gentle hand ride, outstaying her, winning by a good neck.

Zethus showed his good quality by repeating his splendid race of several days ago, easily disposing of Lord Stanhope in the last eighth, after a little shaking up. He should prove one of the best three year-olds here this season, especially over a siderable distance of ground.

DISTANCES OF RACES RUN IN 1906.

Only One at Four Miles-Only 139 Over One Mile and a Quarter.

Should you tell one of those old fellows with a vivid recollection of the days when races were run in heats of four miles that there was only one race at four miles in America in 1906 and that a dash for the Thornton Stakes at Oakland, and further that there were out of 7,657 races run at major and minor meetings only 139 at distances longer than one mile and a quarter and that they were all dashes, you would be more than apt to hear some things about 'degradation of the sport" that would not be print-

About the same time you could get a hot argument out of the fellow who holds to the opinion that our two-year-olds are annually raced to death by telling him that 1,608 races for two-year-olds exclusively were run, and that this was a fraction more than 22 per cent of all the races of the year.

Whether, in conditioning races at the shorter distances and for the younger horses, we are progressing or retrogading is the question about which much has been said and written, and one which is largely a matter of present onlying. However, it is a present onlying. a matter of personal opinion. However, it is a no ticeable fact that whenever there is a race on the cards anywhere at two miles or over there is a more general outpouring of the public and there is much ado about it. All of which would seem to indicate that the long distance races are still popular with the public. The secretaries say that they do not program more long distance races for the reason that they are not able to get the horsemen to enter The horsemen say that they do not train their horses for long distance racing for the reason that it is not profitable; that there is not enough of it to justify them in getting horses ready and keeping them so. The horsemen say that the secretaries do not provide longer races because the bookmakers do not regard them as "good betting races." If the bookmakers really do hold this notion it would appear that it is a false one, for any race made up of horses trained to the minute and of equal or nearly equal caliber is a "good betting race."

But since it was the intention at the outset to present a table of the number of races run at the various distances last year, we will pass up the

THE JOCKEY CLUB FEELS SECURE.

"The fact that Governor Hughes in his first m sage to the legislature made no reference to the racetracks has been well received by that portion of the public interested in the turf," says the New "As a matter of fact the entire racetrack element cast a big vote for Mr. Hughes at the recent election because of the persistent attacks upon racing made by his opponent. The opposition to racing which developed at Albany last year, and may crop up again during the present session of the legislature, is conducted by persons who do not reside in the state of New York and are known as pro fessional reformers. The Jockey Club meanwhile has not as yet shown much concern over the situa-With more than thirty stallions donated to as many well known breeders of the state and nearly $300,000 to be distributed among the various agricultural societies, accruing from the state racing tax, Jockey Club evidently feels confident of power ful backing at Albany when the proper time arrives.

ABOUT THE TWO-YEAR-OLDS.

Capucine, which won the two-year-old race at ew Orleans yesterday, is the first of the get Watercolor to take brackets, and is likewise the foal of the young mare Stocks, by Indio, out of Carrie, by Wanderer. Capucine was bred by J. B. Haggin at Elmendorf Stud and was sold privately to J. C. Milam. Watercolor was a good racehorse was put into the stud at Elmendorf in the spring of 1903, so that his first foals were dropped There were eight of them, seven of which were sold as yearlings in 1905, and five of which raced as two-year-olds last year. As remarkable as it may seem, not one of the five was ever in the money. Collectively they ran in thirty-one races. Black Enamel, out of Dareka, for which Newton Bennington gave $3,000, started fourteen times Coleur d'Or, out of Flower of Gold, which went Malaic. to J. J. Hyland for $500, started once. daughter of Formosa, which brought $200, raced four times. Aqua Tint, son of Numeroet, for which Harry Stover paid $500, started four times. Water speed, daughter of Sue Kittie, also purchased by Stover, started eight times. The three that have not raced are Grace Ethel, out of The Task, for which Newton Bennington paid $1,200; Peg Nicholson, out of Onega, and Poinsettia, out of Florentia, which went to J. A. Bennet for $600.

Out of 278 nominations for the Derby, 167 stay in and among this long list are eight Americans. August Belmont has two, Herman B. Duryea four, and James R. Keene two. His Majesty King Edward has four, the best of which is Perambulator, a bay colt by Persimmon, out of Spyglass. Major Eustace Loder, who won last Spyglass. year with Spearmint, has four also and among them is Galvani, the crack chestnut which is by Laveno, out of Gallinaria

MISSOURI LAW AMENDMENT.

Jefferson City, Mo., January 10.—Senator Ely of Dunklin county, introduced a bill in the senate day providing an amendment to the anti-pool selling law by prohibiting the registering of bets outside the state by the use of the telephone. The bill is designed to cover the defect found in the present law by the supreme court's recent decision in the Oldham

HILDRETH'S WINNING DAY.

VAN NESS AND RAPID WATER LAND BIG WAGERS FOR HIM.

Hildreth Signs L. Williams for One Year-Colored Boy Rides Four Winners-Neptunus Case Undecided

Oakland, Cal., January 10 .- Four selling and two condition races comprised today's card at Oakland. The track was still very muddy, but exquisite than average racing. Favorites fared badly, only one—Van Ness—being successful. A number of killings materalized. Ray Bennett was the medium of one in the introductory event and Earl Rogers emulated his success in the second, but the big coups of the day were reserved for the fourth and coups of the day were reserved to good things in Van Ness and Rapid Water, particularly with the last named, at lucrative odds. Rapid Water, after an inglorious eastern campaign, returned to the races rejuvenated and in his best form. high class horse could have survived and won after the interference he met with at the start.

The stewards have not yet passed on C. E. Dur-nell's protest affecting the validity of the claiming of Neptunus by W. M. Caine on Tuesday. The pro-test is based on the contention that Cain had no authority to act for his partner in the premises. G. Eurger was not allowed to retain possession of Van Ness for exactly the same reason recently and it is thought that Durnell will win his point.

The colored jockey L. Williams has signed a contract to ride for S. C. Hildreth for one year. The consideration was not divulged, but $3,500 is rumored the retainer. Williams distinguished himself by riding four horses to victory today. Jockey Mc-Intyre has been set down for five days by the starter.

VOTER SECOND IN SIRE LIST.

James R. Keene's Voter is second in the list of successful sires for 1906. Voter is a dark chestnut horse, by Friar's Balsam, out of Mayourneen, by Barcaldine. He was foaled in Eugland in 1894 and was brought to this country at the foot of his dam in the same year by Mr. Keene. Foxhall Keene was the breeder of Voter. Mavourneen was bred by Mr. C. Wood and was sold as a yearling to Mr. Tenby, who raced her as a two-year-old in 1890 and as a three-year-old in 1891, selling her in the fall of that year to Mr. Foxhall Keene, who raced her the following year, after having sent her to the court of Petrarch in the spring. The result of this mating was a chestnut colt called Dudheen, foaled in 1893, but there is no record of his having raced. In the spring of 1893 Mayourngen was mated to Friar's Balsam and Voter was the result. Before leaving England in 1894, Mavourneen was bred to Amphion and the result was Maid of Erin, which dropped at Castleton Stud.

Voter did not race as a two-year-old, but as a three-year-old in 1897 he came into prominence as an exceedingly fast herse over a short distance. He was not raced in 1898, but during the next three years he was the undisputed champion sprinter of the turf in this country. He was the first horse to run a mile in 1:38 in a race. This he did at Brighton Beach, July 17, 1966, with 122 pounds Twice he ran three-quarters of a mile in First in winning the 1:122 with 133 pounds up. First in winning the Sea Cliff Stakes at Brighton Beach in 1900, and again a year later in winning the Coney Island Handicap at Sheepshead Bay.

His racing career ended in 1901 and he entered service at Castleton Stud in the spring of 1902, that his first foals came in 1903 and raced as two-year-olds in 1905. Thus it will be seen that he has come into prominence as a sire early. Electioneer and Ballot were the chief contributors to his standing, 'the former's victory in the Futurity having most to do with it. There are many who attribute the greater of Electioneer's qualities to his dam, Quesal, which was the property of the Major B. G. Thomas and which is now owned by William Lakeland. Commenting upon the performances of his get, & pedigree expert recently said: "Voter will be re-membered as one of the most brilliant milers in American turf history, and those who hold that the chief attribute of a successful stallion is 'speed' have obviously no need of looking further Voter for their ideal. The male line of F r for their ideal. The male line of Hermit be none too popular in its native land, but may Voter's sire, Friar's Balsam, was himself a racehorse of which it might be well said that no one really knew how good he was. Then, too, Voter's dam, Mayourneen, was a daughter of the unbeaten Irish-bred Barcaldine, for which no course was too long and no weight too high. The pedigree of Voter is persistently characterized by representations of the Stockwell and Touchstone lines of Whalebone." Here is the record of the performances of Voter's get in 1906:

M'GIBBEN TALKS ABOUT JOCKEYS.

High Opinion of "Hand Riding Kelly"-Sandy a Comer-Sloan Master of Them All.

Ever since the days of the old Bay District track Sam McGibben has been in the employ of the California Jockey Club, his duties being to superintend the stabling and to look after the jockeys, keep track of their engagements, see that they get their fees, etc. In this capacity he has practically lived with the riders all these years and no man in the west is probably better qualified to pass judgment on the boys of the past and the present than is he. The San Francisco Chronicle's man at Oakland found him at leisure long enough a few days ago to get this interesting chat from him:

"Just at the present time we have a number of very fair boys riding here. Of course, every one what Miller can do, but not detracting from his ability, I think I would just as soon put Frank Kelly up in any race, where he could do the weight, as any rider in America today. No jockey can beat him away from the post and as a judge of pace and a jollier of sour dispositioned horses I never saw his superior. It is only a great pity that we do not see him often in the parade. My, but what a horseman he would make on the other side, where the scale of weight is higher

"As a manipulator Tod Sloan had all the riders of his time and, in fact, of any time, beat forty At Ingleside in the old days Tod would often come to me after a race.

"'Who owns such and such a horse, Sam,' would say, 'mentioning probably some nag that had finished away back in the ruck. 'Now if you can get them to put him in the same kind of race as today and get me the mount I believe I could win.' He was hardly ever mistaken, and a few days afterward he would come home in front with this horse that was little thought of.

"Sloan didn't need a manager. He was far and away the most brainy boy that ever rode under my jurisdiction. He could learn anything quickly. was a good shot, played billiards well, skated well, in fact, he excelled in anything he undertook. I know that Tod was often roasted in print and in curred the enmity of many high officials, but I ways found him easy to handle and a perfect little gentleman. Tod wanted to be somebody. that phase of his character was to his credit,

"Little Sandy is a mighty promising rider. He is a boy that can hardly fail to make his mark and is as nice a little fellow as one wants to meet. I think Bill Knapp is the most popular rider. He gets more applause from the boys after winning a race than any of them. Knapp is a good boy every ray; takes care of his family and is a credit to his calling.

"McBride is another nice little fellow, quiet and unassuming: so is Gene Hildebrand. Radtke is. without doubt, one of the greatest riders this any other country ever produced. He is one of those rough-and-tumble fellows, and I think the only he ever really stood in awe of is John Oliver Keene, who brought him out. I heard a good story of an occurrence just after James R. Keene, vice-chairman of the Jockey Club, had secured second call on his

"Mr. Keene went to the jockey's room at Sheepshead Bay and requested Algernon Daingerfield to bring Radtke out, as he wanted to have a personal interview with his new rider.

"The jockey followed Mr. Daingerfield out on the lawn. 'This is Radtke, Mr. Keene,' began the former by way of introduction, but was cut off short by the rider, who looked the veteran turfman over cynically. 'Bosh,' he retorted, with some warmth. 'What are you stringin' me for? That ain't Keene.' And he turned on his heel and stalked back to the scalesroom. He had evidently expected to see his old employer. "But Radtke was never a marker to Frankie Jordan or 'Doc' Tuberville. If any jostling or rough work occurred in any race where either of these boys rode, I tell you we had to keep our eyes open when they weighed in. They didn't care where started a fight if they felt aggrieved, and often it took the whole force to avert a desperate encounter. They were both great rules and take any kind of a chance in a race. 'Doc' Tuber-take any kind of a chance in a race. 'Doc' Tuber-ville went to New York with Johnnie Campbell, 166338. great Futurity on Ogden, a despised outsider, while Jordan's career to the day that he got too heavy to ride was one continuous round of fireworks. He steered Queenie Trowbridge to victory at Monmouth when she won at odds of 100 to 1, and was the medium of the biggest killing ever made on the American turf, and in the palmy days of Chris Smith's stable he rode Yo Tambien to many of her victories. No gambler that ever lived could outbet Jordan. On one occasion at St. Louis he cut up so badly that he was fined $1,000 by the stewards, besides being set down. Frankie took a $20 bill and ran it up to nearly $10,000 before the day

'Another time, when Jordan was riding at St. Louis, Chris Smith sent for him to come to New York to ride his great mare. Lamplighter was in the race and the foreign books laid 4 to 1 against Yo Tambien. A big better in St. Louis wired to Chicago to know if Frankie had arrived sober, and the answer was in the affirmative. Then they just ate up that chalk game. It looked as if everybody that could scrape up a dollar in the Missouri town bet on the peerless daughter of Marian. When she hit the stretch, a length behind Captain Brown's champion, Frankie sat down to ride what was, perhaps the most desperate finish of his career, and just squeezed her home in front by the narrowest of margins. There was more wine opened in St. Louis racing circles that night than was ever recorded before or since. Chris Smith gave Jordan $3,000 for winning, and he wasn't heard of for more than a Then one day he drifted in through the week. gate of the Fair Grounds, black with coal dust and gaunt as a coyote in the deep snow time. He had spent the princely fee and had beaten his way back on the blind baggage.

"I think we have on the average very fair talent here just now. Little Kirschbaum will make a good boy. So will Buxton. Leroy Williams is a consistent boy, while Brown, Graham and Wilson showed that they had to be considered on the Northern circuit.

"Of course, as usual, I suppose, California will develop a star rider this winter, as it has nearly every other year. It is a little early to prognosticate yet, but as the spring advances and the track gets good I look for several of our youngsters to show form that will place them in the front rank of American riders.

GOVERNOR COX'S MESSAGE.

Governor John I. Cox, who in his message to the Tennessee legislature Wednesday asked that body to create a law that will forever prevent betting on herse racing in that state, is to be succeeded on Wednesday next by Mr. Patterson, who for the coming two years will be the chief executive officer in Tennessee. Mr. Patterson is regarded in Tennessee as a friend to racing and it is said of him that he entertains no Puritanical notions about betting. is not believed by those who know him best that be would place his signature to so radical a measure as that introduced by Senator Faust, should the leg islature pass it, unless it be passed by an overwhelming vote, which is not likely. Governor Cox, however, has left no doubt as to his attitude on the question of betting. As a senator he did much to ass the law that was knocked out by the courts, and this is what he had to say in his message

"The last legislature passed a law prohibiting gambling on race courses in Tennessee. This act was declared unconstitutional by our courts on count of defects in the draft and form of the bill The objections to the act, as found by the court, were purely on the ground that the form of the bill did not conform to the fundamental constitutional requirements. This objection can be easily over-

"Racehorse gambling is regarded as one of the most pernicious and dangerous species of gambling known to modern times. To me it is alarming, appalling, that at this day the Christian people of this state permit to remain on their statute books a law authorizing, making legal and recognizing this ruinous species of immorality. Why should a racehorse gambler be favored by our lawmakers and a crap-shooter be sent to the penitentiary? I therefore recommend that you enact a law forever pro-hibiting racehorse gambling in Tennessee.

Went to post at 3:08. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won driving; second easily; third handily. Merlingo followed Entre Nous closely to the final quarter, then moved up fast in the final eighth and, under a sharp hand ride, outstayed him. The latter showed superior speed for seven and a half furlongs and stood the final drive gamely, succumbing only in the closing strides. Livius made up ground fast in the last quarter and finished with a rush. Lord of the Heath fell away beaten when turning for home and ran a bad race.

Went to post at 3:37. At post 1 minute. Start good. Woon handily; second easily; third cantering. Zethus, after being reserved in the early racing, ran into the lead and clung on tenaciously through the final quarter and, with a little shaking up in the final sixteenth, won gradually going away. Lord Stanhope showed much speed for six furlongs and, under sharp punishment through the last eighth, finished resolutely, but was not good enough. Judge Nelson ran a good six furlongs, but fell away fast in the last sixteenth. St. Edgar went well for five furlongs.

Went to post at 2:57. At post 7 minutes. Start good. Won handily; second driving; third the same. Van Ness, from a striding start, forced the pace hard held in the early running, then took the lead, but was under pressure in the stretch to stall off Shady Lad. The latter got away poorly, but closed up quickly at the half, loomed up like the winner on the turn, but tired finally. Chief Wittman kept pace with the winner to the half, where he tired, but stood a long closing drive well to save third place. Prestige was outpaced here and never dangerous, but finished well. Sea Lad showed early speed. but failed to stay and was outclassed. Judge was never dangerous. The winner was entered for $600; no bid.

Went to post at 3:53. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won in a canter; second driving; third the same. Grace G., from a striding start, ran in close pursuit of the leaders and, finishing fast, outstayed the others decisively through the stretch. Grace St. Clair broke slowy on the inside, was in the worst going throughout, but set the pace for five furlongs and tired finally after a game effort. Sainrida, from a striding start, ran in close pursuit early, but tired badly in the last quarter and ran a poor race. Johnny Lyons, away slowly, finished gamely. Melitah was shuffled to the rear early and never dangerous, was palpably short and the race will improve her.—Blanche C., handicapped by the stiff going, showed superior speed to the stretch, then quit badly. Winner—B. m, by Woolsthorpe—Amabel (trained by G. P. Brazier).

Went to post at 2:29. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won handly; second driving; third the same. Lady Ellison ran to her best form, was reserved for the first three-quarters, then rusised into the lead when called on and won holding her own in the final drive. Delphie, poorly handled and taken wite all the way, finished fast and gamely and was probably best today. Heart of Hyacinth began slowly, but closed a big gap and ran a winning race. Roseboro showed speed, but fired in the stretch. Dapple Gold suffered from interference in the early stages and finished fast. Grogarin tired badly after going three-quarters and was eased up in the last sixteenth when beaten. Kara was restrained almost throughout. Horseradish is gradually rounding into form. The winner was entered for $700; no bid.

Scratched—65903 Glenclare, 109.

Incorrect weight in entries—Dan McKenna, 115.

Winner—Ch. f, by Watercolor—Stocks (trained by J. C. Milam).

Went to post at 3:02. At post 7 minutes. Start bad. Won driving; second and third the same. Capucine broke running and, showing a high order of speed, led throughout, but had to do her best at the end. Finesse, also lucky at the start, closed a big gap in the drive through the stretch and was wearing the winner down at the end. Hazel M. was in a tangle at the start and finished well, but could not overcome the leader's advantage. Ziephen ran gamely and put up a good performance. Montbert was away too poorly to cut any figure in the result. Prince Bowling tried to run out all the way. Embay, away poorly and running green, was never a serious factor. Ben Sand is a good looker, but nowhere near ready.

Scratched—66282 Antoine, 111.

Winner—Ch. f, by King Gold—Sidda Hallow (trained by J. Collins).

Went to post at 4:00. At post 1 minute. Start bad. Won easily; second driving; third the same.

Miss Leeds gained a big advantage at the start and, being given an energetic ride, won all the way as her rider pleased. Florizel began slowly, but came fast through the stretch and outstayed Reticent at the end. The latter was poorly handled, but finished fast and would have been second with a better ride. Come On Sam tired fast after going a good half and had no mishaps. Conjuress tired in the drive through the stretch after being a sharp factor for the first half. Posing, away poorly, had scant chance and was not persevered with. The winner was entered for $1,000; no bid.

The latter ran well and was in close quarters for the first three-quarters. Belle of the Bay ran well. Lady Vashti had the worst of the start, but closed a big gap and ran a winning race. Winner—Blk. e, by Bannockburn or Sain—Estelle (trained by J. P. Mayberry).

Went to post at 4:59. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won driving; second and third the same. Quinn Brady was lucky throughout and, clear of interference, followed the early leaders closely to the stretch turn, where he took the lead and, standing the final drive gamely, outstayed Beecher. The latter, badly ridden, was much the best, but was taken the longest way throughout and Keyes almost fell off when he attempted to ride a strong finish. Foreigner ran a good race and was right there all the way. St. Noel, while going wide throughout, closed a big gap and finished with a rush. Lacache tired after going three-quarters. Impertinence quit when hard ridden. Adbell was knocked out of any chance on the first turn, but closed a big gap in the middle half and tired in the last quarter. Oberon suffered from much interference. Associate had a rough trip and was almost thrown over the fence on the first turn. The winner was entered for $600; no bid.

Incorrect weight in entries—Quinn Brady, 108.

Overweights—Oberon, 1 pound; Gladiator, 1; Associate, 2.
